FORCE POLICY LETTER 04-13

From: Commander
To: Distribution List

Subj: FRIDAY SERVICE UNIFORM POLICY

Ref: (a) MCO P1020.34G

1. Purpose. To announce the Friday Service Uniform policy.
2. Information. Beginning 4 January 2013, the Commandant of the Marine Corps has directed that all non-deployed Marines and sailors assigned to Marine units, regardless of component, Active or Reserve, will be required to wear the appropriate seasonal service uniform each Friday.
3. The seasonal uniform change while in garrison will occur worldwide with the change to and from daylight savings time (DST) in the United States.
 - a. During the winter season, the transition to the winter seasonal uniform will commence the first duty day following the fall change to DST. The service uniform of the day on Fridays from November to March will be the Service "B".
 - b. During the summer season, the transition to the summer seasonal uniform will commence the first duty day following the spring change to DST. The service uniform of the day on Fridays from April to October will be the Service "C".
4. The policy for civilian dress remains the same throughout the work week for government civilian employees.
5. Commanders may make case-by-case exceptions based on operational commitments.
