

Consumer Complaints

Dealing with a defective product or poor customer service can be frustrating and costly. When this happens, you may decide to make a complaint. To complain effectively, start by determining what you want to achieve and be prepared to validate your complaint with all purchase-related paperwork including copies of receipts, estimates, repair orders, warranties, bank statements, and any correspondence from the company. If you have an issue:

1. Contact the business. Start with the salesperson you dealt with or the manager. Clearly and calmly describe the problem and the action you would like them to take. Document their response or correspondence in writing.
2. Contact the company president or a representative of the manufacturer. Use the Sample Complaint Letter below as a guide and send your letter by certified mail, return receipt requested.
3. Contact industry trade associations.
4. Contact local and state consumer advocates. Use the resource list on the next page for consumer protection contacts.

See your Command Financial Specialists (CFS) or Personal Financial Manager (PFM) for guidance.

Describe the purchase. Include the name of product and serial number. Include the date and place of purchase.

State the problem. Give the history.

Ask for specific actions. Include copies of documents.

Allow time for action. State how you can be reached.

Keep copies of all of your letters, faxes, emails and related documents.
